DROWNED IN A MUD PUDDLE.

A Hunter Falls in a Pit and is Suffocated.

DATTON, Ohio, March 30.—Ed. Collins started with gun and dog yesterday to hunt ducks on the river and half an hour later was found dead on the pike, where he had fallen in a pit, face downward, suffocated in a mud puddle. The dog stood on the body of his dead master until a crowd of farm neighbors arrived.

Plantation Fires in Cuba.

Key West, Fla., March 30.—The latest dispatches from Cuba say that on Tuesday a large fire broke out in the fields of the Esperanza plantation, situated in Calmete. All the sugar cane was totally destroyed, also the carts and wagons that were working on the fields. The damage was over $10,000. It is supposed to have been set on fire. Another conflagration destroyed over forty thousands arrobes of cane on the Gratitude plantation.

Winter Wheat.

St. Louis, March 30.—The Grier commission company have compiled reports from the winter wheat belt of Missouri and Illinois and find the destruction is not so great as feared, but still is very large. From correspondents in Illinois the estimate of the winter wheat crop will fall about 30 per cent. short of last year, and in eighteen counties in Missouri that it will fall 20 per cent. short.

Tate Impeached.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 30.—Impeachment proceedings closed this afternoon with a verdict of guilty against the absconding treasurer and his removal from office.

THE custom observed every fourth year of permitting the fairer sex to assume the rights and prerogatives appertaining to their brothers during the remaining three is a very ancient one. When it originated is not definitely known, but a law enacted by the parliament of Scotland in the year of 1288 is doubtless the first statutory recognition of the custom. The law was as follows: "It is statute and ordinance that during the reign of her majesty blisset megestie, ilk fourth year, known as leap-year, ilk maiden ladye of baith high and low estate, shall have liberty to bespeak ye man she likes; albeit, gif he refuses to tak hir to be his wyfe, he shall be mulcted in ye summe of ane undrie or less, as his estate moit be, except and awis gif he can mak it appear that he is betrothit to sone ither woman, that he shall then be free."

Uncle Remus has wisely declared that "mule don't kick 'cording to no rule," and "that oolds have no systematic way of taking hold of a person." The only safe cure, when they do, is a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

BAD SWITCHMEN.

They Indulge in a Little Riot, But the Burlington Stands Firm—The Situation To-day.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The first encounter between the sympathizers of the striking switchmen and the men who have replaced them took place last evening, when a "Q" switch engine and crew attempted to transfer some freight cars to the Northwestern. A crowd of switchmen of other roads were about the place and began to jeer at the new men on the "Q" engine. The train reached Kinzie street and Western avenue, when it ran off a switch that had been turned and a number of cars were derailed. The mob then set upon the crew of the engine and train, and the fireman and engineer took to their heels, getting numerous cuffs as they escaped. The new switchmen followed suit, but were pursued and roughly used by the crowd, which was made up of the roughest kind of citizens.

The Pinkerton men, of whom there were six or eight on the train, attempted to protect the trainmen, but the mob set upon them with savage glee and disarmed them in a twinkling. They were powerless, and after a few efforts to defend themselves, took to flight to escape the drubbing they were receiving at the hands of the furious mob. Several Pinkerton men were hurt and one is thought to have sustained serious injuries. On the same train was Division Superintendent John Besler, of Burlington. When the trouble commenced he hurried to the front and some one in the crowd recognized him. The disclosure of his identity was the signal for the mob to fall on him and beat him. The attack came from all sides and it was only after having been badly used up that he escaped and ran to the switch house, where he looked himself in and escaped from further punishment. The riot created great excitement and Pinkerton men and officers flocked to the scene. The mob quickly dispersed, however, and only one man was arrested. His name is Will Quirk.

Numerous offers of bail were tendered and $8,000 surety for his appearance was offered but he was locked up. When the crowd realized that their comrade had to remain in the police station the Milwaukee and St. Paul men in their rage decided to strike immediately and deserted their engines. The whole yard force of switchmen, engineers and firemen, 227 in all, quit work, leaving twenty-eight engines standing on the tracks.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul yardmen were required to put on the track the cars which they had derailed yesterday as the first work after their strike, but they refused and said they would not handle any cars pulled by "Q" engines. As a direct and immediate consequence of the strike the entire night freight traffic, both through and local, was completely suspended. The passenger engineers were with difficulty restrained from striking. The leading spirits among the strikers decided not to interfere with the passenger trains at least not until this morning.

The switchmen engineers and firemen of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, who struck yesterday, assembled at the yards at Western avenue and Kinzie street this morning, but none went to work. The passenger trains are moving but the freight business is tied up.

There was no effort on the part of the police to disperse the men. The riot of yesterday afternoon has had its effect on the new switchmen in the employ of the Burlington. Only those whose business kept them within the "Q" yards were at work this morning.

When those who are delegated to work with the engines along the tracks between the different points were called upon to go out with the engines they refused, saying they did not want to trust themselves on the outside, and that they would not go unless provided with arms, to defend themselves.

Mr. Morton said: "If every man on the road except the general passenger agent struck we should still keep up the fight."

"We have the law on our side and we do not propose to back down. Mr. Arthur promised he would call the strike off if the Burlington could get along without the brotherhood. We did get along without them and he inaugurated the boycott. The courts ruled against the boycott and then followed the switchmen's strike. We shall not waver after having gone so far."

ANORA, Ill., March 30.—Another case of incendiarism is charged by the Burlington officials at Downers Grove. A passenger coach on the side track, along with several other passenger cars, was set on fire about 1 o'clock this morning. The other cars were detached and pulled out of danger. The car is ruined.

MILWAUKEE, March 30.—Manager Miller, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, in an interview with an Associated Press reporter this morning, said there was no truth in the statement made by the switchmen at Chicago that the St. Paul company had been secretly aiding the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy company.

"The trouble is," said Mr. Miller, "that the Chicago switchmen have combined to make a thorough boycott against the Quinoy company and in sympathy with the movement, our men refused to handle some of the new cars brought to us by the Burlington from the factory of Wells, French & Co., which is on the line between the Burlington road. The cars were empty, and we told the men that if they did not handle those cars they could not handle anything, and we propose to maintain that position."

This morning a train of stock cars left the "Q" yards, at Western avenue, for the stock yards, fourteen Pinkerton men guarding the train. As it was passing a Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg engine, a brakeman on the latter threw two coupling pins at the crew of the "Q" engine. One of them struck W. W. Thomas, a fireman, in the right eye and knocked him senseless. The police saw the occurrence, but made no effort to make an arrest. The Pinkerton men telephoned the Western avenue station to have the crew of the Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg engine arrested.

Switchman Quirk, who was at the riot at the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway yesterday, was fined $5 and costs.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 30.—Vigo Lodge, No. 16, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, has authorized a volunteer committee to solicit subscriptions among the railroad men of this city in support of the striking firemen of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

THE CAPITAL CITY.

Chief Justice Waite Died a Poor Man—Congressional Proceedings To-day.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president has approved the urgent deficiency appropriation bill.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Since the death of Chief Justice Waite it has been developed that for a man in his exalted position he possessed practically nothing except his home. When he came to Washington he was a poor man, and at his death all his savings as chief justice were represented in his 1 street home.

The salary of the chief justice is $10,500 per annum, the highest paid any official of the government except the president and the few foreign ministers representing first-class missions.

A few years ago the chief justice purchased the residence on I street occupied by him, and paid for it out of his salary. He did not live pretentiously, but had a wide circle of friends whom he entertained generously, and this consumed the remainder of his compensation after the payments were made in the house. All that is left his widow is the residence and an insurance of $4,000 which the chief justice carried on his life.

HOUSE.

On motion of McCreary, the senate amendments were non-concurred in to the house bill authorizing the president to arrange a conference for the purpose of encouraging reciprocal commercial relations between the United States and the republic of Mexico, Central and South America and the empire of Brazil.

The house bill granting a pension of $2,000 per annum to Mary S. Logan and a senate bill increasing it to $3,000 a year the pension of Appollina Blair, were considered.

The house passed the senate bill providing for the erection of monuments at the Gettysburg battlefield to the memory of the regular soldiers.

The house passed a bill granting a pension to the widow of General Logan.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

Brief Talks With the Hon. Hugh Dougherty and O. J. Glessner.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 30.—The Hon. Hugh Dougherty, of Bluffton, one of the best known and most popular citizens of Northern Indiana, and who will be a candidate before the democratic convention for the nomination for auditor of state, is at the Grand hotel. Mr. Dougherty says that in the northern part of the state the democrats are all in line and ready for the approaching contest; and he has no fears of the result. He thinks that the party in that section is pretty well divided between Myers and Matson for governor.

Judge O. J. Glessner, of Shelbyville, who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for attorney general, is also at the Grand hotel. The judge is making an active canvass and is greatly encouraged with his prospects. He says that in all of the counties that he has visited, the democrats are united and harmonious and are confident of victory in November. Judge Glessner, if nominated, would doubtless command the full strength of his party and the respect of the opposition.

WOMAN MURDERED.

By Her Husband, Who Commits Suicide—Twelve Children Poisoned.

CHICAGO, March 30.—August Krakow shot and instantly killed his wife at No. 642 Milwaukee avenue about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He then fatally shot himself, dying about 7 o'clock.

The police found Mrs. Krakow sitting in a rocking chair, with two bullet holes in her head. She appeared to have died instantly. On the lounge in the rear room lay the husband, who was also dead.

The most shocking stories are prevalent in the vicinity where the Krakows lived as to the death of all the members of the family. There were twelve in all, it is said, not one of whom survives. Mr. Krakow, who was sixty-two years of age, it was said, that his wife poisoned him, and that this was one of the causes why he left her.

FOUR DROWNED!

By the Great Floods in the Southern States—The Waters Rising and Houses are Abandoned.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 30.—In the general report in yesterday's dispatch the Atlanta and Great Southern road should have been excepted from the statement that all the roads leading to Birmingham were blocked by the washouts.

The Tombigbee at Columbus, Miss., is still rising and is only eighteen inches below high water mark. The lower portions of the city have been abandoned and the water is several feet deep in many houses at Evergreen.

On the Mobile division of the Louisville and Nashville no trains have passed since Tuesday. The water is falling and may be down to its nominal height by Saturday. It is now thought all the roads will be open by Sunday. The Herald special shows that four persons have been drowned.

DETROIT, March 30.—By an overflow of several streams in this county sixty bridges have been washed away and about 700 acres of land flooded, destroying many acres of wheat.

A CHICAGO BLAZE.

One Man Burned to Death and Several Injured.

CHICAGO, March 30.—A fire started early this morning in the five-story block at the corner of Lake and Peoria streets. It is believed one man was burned to death in the cottage next to the factory. Two or three firemen were seriously injured. Marshal Murphy, with thirteen men, who were preparing to leave the fourth floor, where they had been working, were knocked down and badly bruised by a terrible explosion. The losses will aggregate $300,000. Davis & Rankin, dairy supplies; the Zimmerman Refrigerator Co., Linn, Weaver & Co., tinware; and the Goss Printing Press Co., are the principal losers. Insurance, small.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 30.—A fire early this morning at Coldwater, Miss., destroyed ten business houses. The total loss is about $32,000, insurance about one-half.

PERT, Ind., March 30.—A fire broke out yesterday in a large frame barn belonging to Wm. Rogers, a drayman. Before the fire was extinguished it destroyed all the contents of the barn.

SOLDIERS REUNION.

Of the Armies of the Potomac and Northern Virginia at Gettysburg.

New York, March 30.—The arrangements for the reunion of the survivors of the Army of the Potomac, with the survivors of the Army of Northern Virginia are progressing satisfactorily. Hon. George William Curtis will deliver the oration. George Parsons Lathrop, the poet, and Bishop Horatio Potter, of New York, the address of welcome. Some distinguished Confederate well make the reply to the address of welcome. The reunion will be on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of July next, at Gettysburg, and will conclude with a grand banquet.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

Bulgaria Wants an Explanation—The Emperor Takes a Drive.

SOFIA, March 30.—Bulgaria has asked the pope to explain the presence of the Turkish troops at the town of Mustapha Pacha, on the frontier.

BERLIN, March 30.—Emperor Frederick and Empress Victoria drove in a half open carriage from Charlottenburg to Berlin to-day and paid a visit to the dowager Empress Augusta.

Died For His Children's Sake.

COSHOCTON, O., March 30.—Frederick Markley, a farmer, committed suicide near here to-day. He had a life interest in the farm on which he lived and at his death the property was to go to his heirs. He had met with financial reverses, and when the sheriff went to-day to levy on the property Markley killed himself to save the farm for his children.

Safe in Canada.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 30.—It is learned that telegrams were received to-day from both Cross and White, the president and cashier of the State National bank, and that the former is in Toronto and the latter at Montreal. Both men deserted their families, as did the negro janitor, John Griffin, who went with them.

Pardoned.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 30.—Governor Jackson last night pardoned the seven democratic judges and clerks of election who were found guilty of having perpetrated the frauds at the polls two years ago. They were sentenced on June 27 last, to two years imprisonment.

Tate's Defalcation.

LOUISVILLE, March 30.—The impeachment trial was resumed at Frankfort to-day. Auditor Hewitt in his testimony stated that as well as he was able to judge at the present time the defalcation would amount to $204,000.

Christ Rippe was fined by Justice Ryan for assault on Louis Walker.

A MINE HORROR.

An Explosion in a Missouri Mine Imprisons a Hundred Men—Many are Killed Outright.

RICH HILL, Mo., March 30.—The most horrible mine disaster that has ever occurred in the west, happened at noon yesterday in Keith & Perry's No. 6 mine, and as a result a large number of men are entombed, and thousands of dollars' worth of property destroyed. Just at the dinner hour when the men were descending eight at a time in the carriage, a terrible gas explosion occurred, filling every entry with a flame of fire which shot out of the shaft a distance of a hundred and forty feet.

The mine is situated six miles distant from the town. There were two explosions, and it is said the total loss of life will reach sixty. Rich Hill is in Bates county, one hundred miles south of Kansas City, on the Missouri Pacific railroad, in the center of the coal mining district of Missouri.

THE LATEST PARTICULARS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 30.—A dispatch was sent from Richhill, Mo., at 4:30 this morning concerning yesterday's mine disaster, saying the work of rescuing was delayed many hours. The cries of the imprisoned men could be heard but they grew fainter and fainter.

Frank Carr, foreman of the mine, was in at the time of the explosion, but not injured. Fifteen now remain in the mine, being in the west end, and it is believed that most of them will be taken out dead.

The work proceeds very slowly, being attended with great danger. R. H. Keith, president of the Keith & Perry Co., said nothing definite can be known until the fire is put out and they can get in and make an examination. The state inspector of mines went through the mine two weeks ago and made a report pronouncing it in splendid condition.

LOCAL NEWS.

The body of Wm. Swank was shipped to Geneva for burial to-day.

An obstreperous coon was carted to the police station from "Nebraska" in the Lillie this afternoon.

John Brustenham, a moulder at the Bass foundry, while visiting at Crestline, had his over coat stolen.

Paul Keller and Rosa Rieck, Jacob Harkel and Christina K. Koehlinger have been licensed to wed.

The funeral of Mrs. Lou Oliver occurred this morning from the Christian church, with a good attendance.

Wm. Maurman et al. sue Harry Ruhmel et al. for $200 on a note. W. P. Breen is counsel for the claimant.

In the Bohemian case of Ermine vs. Shook the jury in the superior court gave a verdict against the oats notes.

The funeral of Mrs. Alexander Stewart occurred this afternoon from the south depot, her remains having arrived from Nebraska.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says: "Miss Edith Brackenridge, of Fort Wayne, is expected shortly to visit Miss Florence Malott."

Joseph Brannan, Indianapolis; W. H. Hays, Monroeville; W. H. Grayless, Van Wert; Robert W. Burns, Dayton, Ohio, are among the guests at the Wayne hotel.

The funeral of Miss Ellen Donovan, whose death was mentioned in THE SENTINEL yesterday, will occur Monday morning at 9 o'clock, from the home, on East Main street, with high mass at the Cathedral.

A telephone alarm came in this afternoon from the fair grounds. It was said that the stables out there were burning. Chief Hilbrecht went out to see before sending the engines to the scene. The damage consisted of the destruction of a few boards.

Charley Pantlind, son of Mr. Henry Pantlind, died this morning from consumption, aged nineteen years. The young man was bright and promising, but this dread disease reaps the best of them, and Mr. Pantlind has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in his loss. The funeral occurs to-morrow at 2 o'clock from No. 28 East Main street.

The Monroeville Breeze says: "At the residence of Mr. Henry Miner, of this township, by the Rev. O. W. Bowen, Mr. Preston Carrier, of Dixon, Ohio, and Miss Rachel Rice, of Fort Wayne, Ind., were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. As the young lady is quite handsome, Mr. Carrier is now in possession of the finest bunch of rice ever seen in Dixon."

A brutal sparring match for $100 and the gate money was fought at Peru, Wednesday, between Van Needom, champion light weight of St. Paul, and John McCracken, a home aspirant for prize ring honors. Sports from Logansport, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and Chicago were present. Egan from the start it was plain that Needom was too much for his opponent, who persisted in standing up to him until separated by the officers at the end of the thirty-second round. McCracken is badly used up, but it is thought he is not seriously injured by his three hours' encounter.

IT WAS CHOLERA.

One of the Crew of a British Steamer Dies of That Disease at Nantucket, Mass.

NANTUCKET, Mass., March 30.—Robert Williams, of North Wales, twenty-one years old, one of the crew of the British steamer Cannonbury, which was sunk Wednesday afternoon, died yesterday morning. Dr. Kite, of Nantucket, and Dr. Sharp, the later professor in the University of Pennsylvania, examined the case and found that the symptoms of the man's disease were those of cholera. It was decided to quarantine the entire crew, twenty-three men, for a time. The old railroad station at Surside has been assigned as the quarantine station.

A BRILLIANT OPENING.

The Mammoth Clothing Establishment of Sam, Pete & Max a Scene of Splendor and Gayety.

The opening of the mammoth clothing establishment of Sam, Pete & Max, in their new and handsome rooms at No. 58 Calhoun street, last night, was the event of the season and eclipsed even the most sanguine expectations of the thousands of persons who witnessed it.

Long before 7 o'clock, the hour announced for opening the room, the pavement on Calhoun street was blockaded by a large and anxious crowd. Promptly at 7 o'clock the City band, which had been engaged to furnish music for the occasion, struck up a lively quickstep on the inside, the doors were thrown open and the crowd commenced to pour in. There was a jam and in almost less time than it takes to write these lines the building was packed. A full force of clerks and ushers were at hand to pass people through as quickly as possible, so that all could be accommodated. The doors opening on Harmony court were opened for exit, and the big crowd was kept moving in one direction all the while, and an immense crowd it was. It was variously estimated, but 7,500 people would certainly be a small figure.

Some estimate of the multitude that passed through the building may be formed from a knowledge of the fact that 2,500 pencil tablets as souvenirs for gentlemen, and 2,000 very handsome writing tablets for ladies had been provided, and that before 9 o'clock all were exhausted.

So far as location of their store room is concerned no better could be found in Fort Wayne. It is right in the heart of the business center of the city, in a magnificent block, and it is on the right side of the street. The store room has a front of thirty feet and a depth of 150 feet with solid glass front and rear, while a clear skylight furnishes light for the central portion of the room.

Words fail to do full justice to the work that these enterprising gentlemen have just completed at such an enormous expense. Their store room is a perfect beauty. The massive show windows present an artistic dressing not surpassed by any on Broadway, New York. The array of rich and attractive goods with which the tables and shelves were loaded, speaks volumes for the taste of the managers, who have selected their stock from the leading makers of America and Europe. The ceilings are truly a work of art, and must be seen to be appreciated. The furniture is the work of the well known artists, Messrs. Philippon, of Chicago, who, in fact did all the art decorative work, and they may well feel proud of the results.

The office in the center of the spacious building is connected by the Barr cash system with every department. The rear has been set apart for the comfort of the little folks, and is as sumptuous and homelike as a private parlor. Their opening was a grand success and the gentlemen can well feel proud of it.

Incandescent Light.

The Jenney Electric Light and Power company are constructing and will soon have in operation an incandescent light system. The company will furnish light in business places without extra charge for wiring to all those who subscribe for the same before the 1st of May, 1888. The expense for electrical appliances, wiring, etc., amounts to nearly one-half a year's rental for the light. This liberal offer of furnishing all wiring free to those customers who subscribe before May 1, will hold good only until that time, after which free wiring will be discontinued. For further information address C. G. Guild, manager.

That's So

Relief is certain for the dependent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is a non-alcoholic beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver. Take it once and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to relieve me so completely as this. It is a simple, natural, and all-sufficient remedy, and it gives a new and healthy tone to the system. I have used it for several months, and it has cured me of all my troubles. I am now in perfect health and feel like a new man." J. M. JARNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy has established the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so gently that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the liver, is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons' Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it." Rev. J. M. JARNEY, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

Votes for free roads and give the city and county a boom.

It is estimated that the decrease in the public debt for the month of March will amount to nearly $10,000,000.

The Ligonier Banner, edited by Colonel I. B. McDonald's son, leans towards the candidacy of Hon. Eli W. Brown for auditor of state.

At Lafayette, yesterday, a general competitive examination was held at the G. A. R. hall for the West Point cadetship, with eight applicants for the place. At Fort Wayne, the silk stocking Morton club named the West Point student without giving the young men of Fort Wayne, let alone the district, a chance to be heard.

Next Monday, April 2, is the township election day. Good township officers are as necessary as good general officers. A township trustee is an important officer. He controls the public schools, appoints the teachers, he fixes the township tax levy, has charge of the poor and looks after the roads. Mr. George W. Brackenridge is equal to the task in every respect.

The Chicago Tribune thinks that "the cooler heads in the republican party are beginning to see that it will not be safe to go into the presidential campaign occupying the position on the tariff question assumed by Mr. Blaine and Mr. Chauncey Depew." And it warns the "ultra-tariff republicans of the east" that "without some concessions on their part and reasonable regard for the convictions of western republicans it will be impossible for the party to elect a president in this year of grace 1888."

The Huntington Democrat remarks: "Hon. Hugh Dougherty, of Bluffton, has consented to the use of his name as a candidate for the democratic nomination for auditor of state. Probably no man could be found in Indiana that would add more strength, popularity and confidence to any ticket than Mr. Dougherty. He is able, conscientious and straightforward and no where in his whole life is there a stain. He is one of the very best of men and the democratic convention will do itself proud by giving him the place on the state ticket that his friends are asking for him."

Mr. Wm. Dudley Fowler, of Richmond, Ind., president of the Indiana Civil Service Reform association, organized for retaining republicans in office, has been in Washington, weeping, wailing and gnashing his teeth because certain democrats have been appointed to and retained in positions in the Indianapolis postoffice. There is real, poignant grief in Mr. Fowler's statement: "Well, we have not had any civil service reform in Indiana." It is really a very sad case, but will Mr. Fowler or his tear absorber, the Gazette, tell us when civil service scruples ever led republicans into the wholesome practice of appointing or retaining democrats in office? We pause for a reply from the partisan sucklings.

The Gazette could not restrain its wrath any longer and this morning administers to ex-Senator Harrison a stinging rebuke over the shoulders of his bosom friend and companion, Correspondent Smith, of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette. Colonel Leonard breaks out at Smith and Harrison in this fashion: "The presence of the odious W. H. Smith, the Indianapolis correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, with Mr. Harrison, however, was not calculated to make General Harrison any friends. This hiring traducer and vilifier of Judge Gresham is just at present creating more discord in the republican party of this state than all the other disturbing elements put together. He is an eyesore to most of the republicans in this city, and he is a person with whom no prominent man, and least of all, General Harrison can afford to have much to do. This man Smith, and a few more nincompoops of his ilk, ought to be frowned down by every well meaning republican in Indiana, in the interest of harmony."

THAT COWARDLY SPEECH.

Ingalls Will Have a Chance to Try Ourselves.

Senator Ingalls undoubtedly knows by this time that even from a partisan political standpoint he made a miserable mistake in delivering his recent speech in the senate.

His abuse of Hancock and McClellan finds but a faint approving response from even the most rabid party organs, while it is being resented in such a manner by many of the soldiers of the country, irrespective of politics, as to make the rebuke to the Kansas senator conspicuously severe. That a man of Mr. Ingalls' ability and ambition should descend to bid for the favor of the soldiers in the discredit way he did, and then inspire as his reward the indignation and condemnation of the soldiers, must be extremely humiliating to him. It will probably be many a moon before he has anything to say in public again about the war, or those who figured in it. If he is as shrewd as he has been heretofore credited with being, he will leave henceforth a field in which he has made such a spectacular failure to more successful cultivators of it, like the governor of Ohio, who, even if he were to provoke such a rebuke as the Kansas has received, is so small that it would never hit him.

Meanwhile, as he is pondering in penitence over the blunders of a politician, he might reflect advantageously on another of his declarations made in the same speech, when he proclaimed, with what was intended as withering sarcasm, that after the nomination of Grover Cleveland there is nothing to this country but obscurity is so impenetrable that he has no right to aspire to the presidential nomination of the Democratic party."

In the course of his reflections perhaps Mr. Ingalls will be able to arrive at some definite conclusion as to the exact time at which obscurity became a crime under our government, or a disability in the path of the politician. The United States who dares direct his ambition to the presidency of a republic built upon the principle that all men are equal. Perhaps Mr. Ingalls will also be able to explain, at least to his own satisfaction, how it is that in censuring the Democratic party for nominating a man who not so many years ago was undoubtedly an obscure man, he can at the same time escape censuring the Republican party on the same ground. Who was more obscure than the now illustrious Lincoln, the first of the Republican presidents? Did President Grant emerge from less "impenetrable obscurity" than any man who ever rose to fame? Even the now distinguished and canonized Hayes was not always like the effulgent luminary which he became when he shot above the Ohio horizon and achieved notoriety as the first and only man who ever robbed the people of the presidency. It was the boast of the Republicans during the Garfield campaign that their leader had risen from the humble obscurity of the township, and President Arthur's name was hardly known outside of New York before Secretary Sherman gave him prominence by summarily turning him out of the custom house.

Where then is the Republican president who was not guilty of the crime of obscurity, if this modern apostle of Republicanism insist on denouncing it as a crime? Perhaps Senator Ingalls is in favor of making the presidency hereditary, as the crowns of Europe are, conferring the honor upon some distinguished family, and providing that it shall descend in a regular line of succession to whatever unobscure nincompoop who happens to be born in that line. By this means the danger of any political party nominating and electing an obscure candidate would be effectually guarded against, and all citizens of the nation would be saved the trouble of trying to overcome the sin of obscurity.

To say the least, this is a very prevalent sin among the citizens of this country. It is even rumored—upon how trustworthy authority it is not pertinent to say—that Senator Ingalls himself was not so very long ago, an obscure peddler. But we know of no one who would think less of Mr. Ingalls on that account, unless it is Mr. Ingalls himself. Indeed, if the goods he peddled were honest we are very much inclined to think that most people in this country have greater respect for Mr. Ingalls as a peddler than they have for him when, as a senator, he deals in such shoddy pinchbeck wares as he purveyed when he delivered his speech in the senate.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

An Edifying Spectacle.
Mr. Blaine is expected to go into the campaign and "fight in his shirt sleeves as he used to in Maine." Brother Clarkson says: "Very much depends on Mr. Blaine whether we shall have a Republican president elected this year. And every Republican in the land, whether Blaine or anti-Blaine, thrills with delight and is strong with confidence because he knows that party dependence on Blaine is safe and sure." The Mulligan-Fisher-Fort Smith and Little Rock hero on the stump for Judge Gresham, for example, would be indeed an extremely edifying spectacle. The stupendous attitude of its absurdity could not fail to impress even Mr. Blaine himself.—Chicago Herald.

A Cause for Embarrassment.
Mr. Lincoln declines the presidency with great frequency nowadays. If the gentlemen in various obscure towns who are tendering him this high office with so much enthusiasm do not look out he will accept it some time, and then there will be more or less embarrassment on one side or the other.—Chicago Herald.

The Truth Hard to Recognize.

It may be annoying to Mr. Blaine to find that so many people still doubt the sincerity of his several withdrawals, but he now perceives and feels the momentum of a reputation for wild statements. A man may tell the truth and still mean a great deal that he doesn't say.—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

A Few Gratuitous Suggestions.

The grand old Republican party appears to be put so sadly to its trumps for a ticket that we cannot forbear throwing out the following suggestions, gratuitously:

For president—J. B. Foraker, of Ohio.

For vice president—J. J. Ingalls, of Kansas.

Platform—The rebel flags and John Brown.

For president—George Fris. Hoar, of Massachusetts.

For vice president—R. G. Horr, of Michigan.

Platform—Piousness and bad grammar.

For president—J. Sherman, of Ohio.

For vice president—W. M. Everts, of New York.

Platform—Hayesism frapped.

For president—C. M. Depew, of New York.

For vice president—M. A. Hanna, of Ohio.

Platform—Anti-monopoly.

For president—Jay Hubbell, of Michigan.

For vice president—Powell Clayton, of Arkansas.

Platform—Civil service reform.

For president—R. G. Ingersoll, of New York.

For vice president—Carl Schurz, of Missouri.

Platform—God in the constitution.—Chicago News.

A Total Wreck.

Senator Ingalls is being denounced in every state of the Union for his slanders of Hancock and McClellan, and though he has the secret sympathy of the bigoted element of his party, even Republicans celebrated for bigotry have repudiated party responsibility for his ungoverned tongue.

The exposure of his "war record" in Kansas has followed to his confusion and disfigurement, and for "the good of the party" it will be necessary to keep him in the background until the incident is forgotten. A more crumpled and frowsy member of the Brahmin caste than he is politically at present it would be hard to find anywhere.—St. Louis Republican.

Look Out for Fun.

There promises to be fun fast and furious in the forthcoming Republican national convention. Mr. Blaine's letter has left his great following in a state of anxiety not easily to be relieved. It would seem that the natural result should be the presentation of a large list of "favorite sons" whose state following will have no faith in the success of their nominal candidates, and who will be ready to jump for the winner the moment that they can form an intelligent opinion of who he is likely to be. In the search for such an one is afforded every opportunity for a free fight of portentous proportions.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Utterly Worthless.

It will be remembered that three years ago Senator Ingalls wrote a letter in which he declared, in substance, that Cleveland was a good president, was doing his duty, and would probably make a successful administration. This, viewed in connection with his recent vile and insensate assaults on the president, shows how worthless are the statements of this cheap and windy demagogue.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Unnecessary.

Mr. Henry Grady's reply to Senator Ingalls is manly and dignified. But it seems to us that Mr. Grady put himself to unnecessary trouble in adopting an argumentative style. It is like a gentleman arguing with a street Arab.—Kansas City Times.

Helping the Cause.

Ingalls' assault on McClellan and Hancock makes New Jersey surely Democratic and Pennsylvania a doubtful state. The Democrats should encourage the Jayhawker to speak often.—St. Louis Republican.

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

They would utter a shrieklet loud enough to be heard by the spectators seated immediately below. She nearly went into hysterics when she saw the "claret" streaming down her husband's face in the third round, but rapidly recovered composure when she saw that the filler was being thrashed; and her features, though paled, wore a pleased expression when the contest ended in her spouse's favor.

FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1888.

LOCAL NEWS.

The schools are all closed.
The Glee club comes Monday.
"The weather is just delightful." How is that?

Every cross road in Indiana is to have a ball club.
Albion, Noble county, needs more dwelling houses.

Dr. White Cloud's entertainments continue to draw large crowds.
Booher says that gas cannot be found within eight miles of Wabash.

The Little River is on a small boom and looks like a spring freshet had struck it.

The funeral of Mrs. L. H. Oliver took place this morning from the Christian church.

The Business Men's exchange will shortly occupy parlors in the Y. M. C. A. block.

The sale of seats for the Michigan University Glee club opens Saturday morning.

Capt. Henry McKinnie arrived in the city last night and is a guest of the Wayne hotel.

This is Good Friday, an occasion solemnly observed in the Catholic and Lutheran churches.

Judge Severns, of Kalamazoo, Mich., was in the city last evening on his way to Washington, D. C.

The Wabash railway is erecting whistle posts at every street crossing within the city limits.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Kaiser took place this afternoon from the St. Mary's Catholic church.

Supt. George W. Stevens has concluded not to change his residence from this city to Logansport.

The deputy city assessor's meet Monday at 8 o'clock to receive their instructions from Captain Reese.

The McGibeny family, shortly to appear at the Y. M. C. A. hall, travel in a $20,000 passenger car of their own.

Hon. Henry Monning, president of the board of directors, sends us a copy of the annual report of the prison north.

Frank Scholes, the superintendent of the White Lime company's kilns, has removed from Fort Wayne to Huntington to live.

G. G. Grady, a former successful circus man, who ran a variety show here once upon a time, has got down to performing bears now.

Mr. Mason Long will begin his lecture season Thursday, April 5, at Carthage, Mo. His horses and quartet of singers are now there.

Mrs. H. Fuller and Mrs. E. P. Edsall, of Chicago, formerly of this city, are guests of their sister, Mrs. William Johnston, jr., of 98 West Berry street.

The night gang in the Wabash freight office in this city has been suspended, probably permanently. The reasons given are that the maintaining of a night force is too expensive.

The Huntington Democrat says: "Miss Carrie Reinwald and Mr. Henry Reipewald, of Fort Wayne, were in this city the first of the week, the guests of the family of Henry Grupe."

Work on the Pettier natural gas well was resumed this morning. The Trenton rock is more promising and the smell of gas is stronger than ever. Its promoters are very hopeful.

Col. Sanford, a distinguished lecturer and foreign traveler, was in the city last evening on his way to Decatur, where he lectures this evening. The colonel has delivered his lecture in this city.

Rev. Schaaf, of Huntington, a nephew of Rev. Carl Schaaf, of this city, will occupy the pulpit of the Grace church next Sunday. The congregation may extend this brilliant young minister a call.

Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Woolpert returned to Wabash this morning, where they are in attendance upon the M. E. conference. Rev. Woolpert came home to perform a marriage ceremony last evening.

Supt. John S. Irwin, of this city, was to have delivered an address at the meeting of the Northern Indiana teachers at Logansport yesterday, but the recent death of his daughter precluded the possibility of his presence.

The entertainments at Princess rink still continue to draw large audiences, and Dr. White Cloud says business is so good and there is such a great demand for Ka-ton-ka and other Indian remedies that he will not close here until April 9.

Cedar Beach and Turkey Lake will blossom out next season in grand style. Immense additions will be added to the Cedar Beach hotel, and we see it stated that the contract for the erection of a large hotel at Franklin Grove was let a few days since by John Vawter, of Franklin, the owner of that beautiful piece of lake front.

The LaGrange Standard says: "The democracy of Clay was captured by the Lowry faction last Saturday. It was brought about by inducing the Ellison committeeman, A. H. Bogue, and the regular committeeman, B. F. Zimmerman, to resign. Then David Norris, one of the most devoted of the Lowry wing, was chosen to fill the place."

"A Tin Soldier" comes to the Temple Tuesday evening next, with no advance in price. The basis of the play is satire, keen and telling, the force of its truths is so clothed in fun, fast and furious, so surrounded by good nature and so framed in bright music, that the whole makes one of the most enjoyable comedies of real life ever presented to the public. In wealth and variety of character study it exceeds any of Roy's plays.

To-morrow is Holy Saturday.

The local civil service examinations were concluded yesterday.

Mr. M. V. B. Spencer personally announces that he is a democratic candidate for congress.

Elizabeth Monroe sues Wm. Fitzgerald for $125 on a note. A. H. Bittinger is her counsel.

There was no police court this morning and the "Lillie" hasn't had a run for twenty-four hours.

Mr. Al. Field, the minstrel man, was in the city yesterday, en route to Peru to join the Wallace circus.

Professor Ungemach's choir will sing Webber's mass in "G" at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Easter Sunday.

Mr. Dennis O'Brien, the efficient street commissioner, is the papa of a handsome boy baby and is doing royal honors over the event.

The graduates of the Michigan University, at the suggestion of Mr. T. E. Ellison will give the college glee club a reception when they come here.

Henry Lehman, A. Dickson and W. J. Buckley, of Wichita, Kan., are in the city looking at the Jenney electric light with a view to introducing it at the thriving western city.

Mayor Muhler urges "that the council pass a general natural gas ordinance and then invite companies to operate under its provisions. The Sentinel has been anxious for this sort of a thing."

The city of Fort Wayne this morning sued the Nickel Plate Railroad company to enjoin them from certain rights on Lafayette street. Colerick & Oppenheim and Randall & Vesey are attorneys for the city.

Preston Chapman, of Lafayette township, has cards out announcing his candidacy for sheriff on the democratic ticket. The other aspirants are Sheriff Viberg, Mr. Ed. Clausner and Mr. John J. Mungen. They are all strong men.

Dr. White Cloud will give no entertainment at the Princess Rink Monday evening, as a hall will be in progress that evening, and he has given up the rink for that purpose. He will resume his entertainments, however, Tuesday evening.

The pink tea and entertainment at the rooms of the railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. last night was pronounced a success. The building was well filled, the tea first class and the entertainment was a success financially. The ladies auxiliary may well feel elated over their achievements in the past. That of last evening showed there is no abatement of zeal on their part and that their hold on the community of which they are worthy has not lessened. The railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. may congratulate themselves upon having so efficient helpmate.

EX-SENATOR HARRISON.

He Makes a Crude Stump Speech to a Very Fine Audience—The Tariff Avoided.

Ex-Senator Harrison addressed a magnificent audience of ladies and gentlemen at the Temple opera house last evening.

There was a sprinkling of republican leaders on the stage, with Judge Chapin presiding. The jurist first introduced the Huntington Glee club to lift the funeral dampness that lingered in the house. He then rose to introduce the speaker of the evening, but prefaced his remarks with a ludicrous statement that the Morton club was not a "silk stocking affair," but a meek and humble haven for republicans to dwell in if they had money and toes enough to shine in aristocratic society and approach the festal board with the leaders.

The explanation was so refreshing that it thawed huge hunks of snow which Will Wilson and Cy Fike had collected to leave at the Morton club, while an honest shopman, who never even looked into the luxurious club tapestry chambers, pulled a chestnut bell and rang it merrily.

The ex-senator then unbosomed himself and gave his hearers a new photograph of his grievances. After thanking the Morton club, and advising his hearers to vote for the best man for township trustee (meaning Mr. Brackensridge) he thrust into Hoosier politics. The state institutions, the gerrymander, the tall sheet forgeries, the injustice to Colonel Robertson, and last, but not least, the defeat of himself for a return to the United States senate, by Mr. Turpin, comprised the burden of his woeful tale.

When Colonel Robertson's name was mentioned the audience cheered heartily and a voice from behind responded, "We will make him governor." Then there was renewed cheering for Colonel Robertson, but when it subsided Mr. Frank Alderman, who occupied a place in the box, yelled out, "He'll not be governor while Porter lives." When the audience recovered from this chill the senator proceeded. He could not bear the idea of Mr. Cleveland presiding over this nation when he did not receive a majority of the popular votes and made an evasive attack on the electoral college system of choosing a president.

The senator was not manly enough to tell his hearers that although Mr. Tilden received a vast majority of the popular votes and with them the electoral college, he was not permitted to take his seat through republican rascality. He did not say, like an honest man should, that as compared to this gigantic, unpardonable theft, all other tally sheet forgeries and election frauds pale into insignificance.

He concluded his speech by a brief and very thin argument for "tariff protection," although that was announced as his text. He used the suppression of the negro vote in the south, the bloody shirt and a few extracts from English papers to show that tariff reform was not a good thing.

At no time did the senator rise to greatness, at no time did he appear above the level of a stump speaker, although he is credited with sufficient ability to do so.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

A Budget of News Unearthed by a Hasty Trip Around the Depots and Manufactories.

The car famine is over.

Railroad travel is improving.

Interest still centers in the Burlington strike.

The Wabash shops are repairing several engines.

Supt. P. S. O'Rourke was at Kendallville yesterday.

This has been a holiday for a number of workmen.

Plymouth is still after the Jenney electric light works.

The section men are kept busy in repairing the railroad tracks.

J. S. Tyler, of the electric light works, is one of the deputy assessors.

To-morrow will be the last working day of the week and the month.

There are plenty of empty freight cars in the railroad yards at the present time.

The clerks of the railroad shops will soon be at work upon their monthly reports.

The new office rooms of the Bass foundry and machine works are now occupied.

There is a general belief among railroad men that the "Q" strike will soon come to an end.

The Hoosier manufacturing company is kept busy and has a full force of hands employed.

The moulding rooms of the Bass works are closed down to-day on account of Good Friday.

Robert McSmith, of Cleveland, traveling passenger agent of the O., B. & Q., was in the city yesterday.

A number of the machinists in the Bass works and the Pittsburg shops are off duty to-day keeping Good Friday.

Mr. John E. Ross, the ticket agent of the Pittsburg, has been entertaining a number of traveling passenger agents recently.

Martin Traverser, an apprentice machinist in the Pittsburg shops, is to be married soon to a young lady from the suburbs.

Frank P. Copper, of Tiffin, O., traveling passenger agent of the B. and O., was among the callers on Ticket Agent J. E. Ross yesterday.

The Pittsburg and Fort Wayne company is constructing a switch or side track from the main line to the Jenney electric light works on Broadway.

The carpenters of the Wabash shops are busy making repairs on a steam dredge, which is used by the company in building and repairing bridges.

There is an almost unanimous sentiment among the labor men in favor of leaving the word labor out of the name of the party which will be organized at the national convention in May.

Jap Edsall, an employee of the Anthony Wayne washing machine company, had three of his fingers so badly injured Wednesday in the machinery that amputation of them was made necessary.

Mr. O. Warner, the traveling passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, a road that is at present getting more free advertising than any other road in America, was in the city yesterday. He thinks the strike on the "Q" will not last forever.

Charles E. Taylor, with a number of other machinists in the Bass works, is observing Good Friday to-day. Charley can spend his day off very profitably, as he has a fine lot of poultry at home to which he can turn his attention. John T. Wiseman and Henry Zanner were also off duty to-day and they are no doubt admiring the superior qualities of Charley's blooded poultry.

Grand Master Workman Powderly says: "What combination of hungry men could fight a battle against a combination of dollars? When a workman ceases to earn, his stomach feels it, and, unless charity is given, he starves. Education must be our motto; we must educate our members. Again, I say strikes do no good. Go to the coal fields in the Lehigh regions, where they have been on a strike for five months, and what do you see there? Misery and suffering on every side."

ONE YEAR.

Frank Pickering Gets That Term in the Prison North.

Frank Pickering, the Nickel Plate brakemen, who snatched a $10 bill from the hands of Willie Brathwaite, son of Engineer Brathwaite, of the Nickel Plate road, some weeks ago, consented to come into court this morning and plead guilty.

Judge O'Rourke sentenced him to one year in the prison north, but before the words were pronounced Pickering said that whisky prompted him to the act and through its influence he went wrong.

The man has a young wife, who called on him each day at the jail and clung to him with all the devotion of a woman. She wept bitterly when sentence was passed on her erring husband this morning and won the pity of everyone.

"Neither rhyme nor reason can express how much I value a cure I've found for my weak ankle," she said. "What can it be?" "Fancy a woman never having heard of Salvation Oil at twenty-five cents a bottle."

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

Notes of the Doings at the Important Gathering.

Interest in the North Indiana conference at Wabash increases daily.

The anniversary temperance sermon of Dr. A. B. Leonard, of Ohio, on Wednesday evening, attracted a very large audience to the church, every seat being occupied long before 7:30—the time fixed for the meeting. The tenor of his remarks were to the effect that prohibition would be accomplished only by prohibitory legislation.

There are a number of candidates for lay delegates to the national convention, of whom two are to be chosen. The following gentlemen are seeking election: Joseph S. Baker, Warsaw; Judge J. W. Mohr, Waterloo; J. E. Rerick, Lagrange; J. W. Seaman, Kokomo; W. A. Thompson, Winchester; Dr. Overholtzer, Logansport; Charles L. Henry, Anderson. These delegates have their railway fare and hotel bills paid in attending the general conference.

Rev. M. C. Cooper during the past year has been doing a grand work in Fort Wayne, having organized a new society on Walton Avenue, and built a splendid new church. The work was peculiarly arduous and difficult. After completing the church, he conducted a revival and obtained over one hundred accessions. He is one of the most enthusiastic and energetic young men in the conference.

There was pretty general talk upon the floor of the conference to-day about the availability of the Rev. A. E. Mahin for the office of presiding eldership in the Fort Wayne district. There seemed to be a strong desire on the part of the ministers to recognize his fitness and qualifications for that position. Mr. Mahin is one of the very strongest men in the conference. As an orator he has few equals and would grace that high office with singular ability.

The following members of the committee on Sunday were reported: Fort Wayne, F. G. Browne, Gochen, A. J. Carey, Kokomo, J. B. Terfinger; Munie, J. W. Lewallen; Richmond, R. N. Barnes; Warsaw, W. S. Boston.

The bishop appears to have a horror of the word "assessment" in church nomenclature. Several ministers who made use of the term were mildly reproved therefor. Bishop Merrill insists upon employing the word "apportionment" instead.

None of the younger members of the conference use tobacco in any form, and the veterans are breaking off the habit as rapidly as they can.

The salaries of the bishops of the church are $3,000 per annum and traveling expenses.

my time worth more than I can save by taking my package to some cheap Chinese laundry, and then have to go and get it again when finished? Yes, I will ask Troy laundry to send me postal order cards, so that I can send word to have their wagon call for it.

Mrs. Jane Agnew, mother of Mrs. Wm. Harrison, of this city, died at Pittsburg Wednesday, at the age of nearly eighty. Her remains passed through the city this morning on the way to Lawton, Mich., where they will be buried by the side of her husband, Mr. Henry Agnew, who was formerly a merchant of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison accompanied the body from this place. Mrs. Agnew was the grandmother of Mrs. Byron Hattersley, Mrs. Samuel Foster and Mrs. Saylor, of this city.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Indiana, Warmer fair weather, except light rain or snow in northern Ohio.

Mr. W. W. A. ... wrote to Senator Ingalls sending him a copy of a St. Joseph paper containing a reference to Ingalls' Presidential aspirations, calling attention to the reference and asking him for an expression of his opinion. The following was received by Ingalls:

DEAR MR. A.—The special referred to has been noted. I was very much impressed by the low prices for the copy that prevailed in St. Joseph, as indicated by the advertisement. Thirty-four cents a pair for extra-length ladies' black tulle-trimmed lace hose is certainly very cheap. There is no occasion for the women of St. Joseph to go barefooted when they can buy such long as these prices. Yours truly, J. D. INGALLS.

DROWNED IN A MUD PUDDLE.

A Hunter Falls in a Pit and is Suffocated.

Darwin, Ohio, March 30.—Ed. Collins started with gun and dog yesterday to hunt ducks on the river and half an hour later was found dead on the pike, where he had fallen in a fit, face downward, suffocated in a mud puddle. The dog stood on the body of his dead master until a crowd of farm neighbors arrived.

Millstone Fires in Cuba.

San Juan, Fla., March 30.—The latest dispatches from Cuba say that on Tuesday a large fire broke out in the fields of the Esperanza plantation, situated in Cumaná. All the sugar cane was totally destroyed, also the corn and wheat that were growing on the fields. The damage was over $10,000. It is supposed to have been set on fire. Another conflagration destroyed over forty thousands acres of cane on the Grand-tula plantation.

Winter Wheat.

St. Louis, March 30.—The Erie commission company have compiled reports from the winter wheat belt of Missouri and Illinois and find the destruction is not so great as feared, but still is very large. From correspondents in Illinois the estimate of the winter wheat crop will fall about 30 per cent. short of last year, and in eighteen counties in Missouri that it will fall 20 per cent. short.

Tate Impatched.

Louisville, Ky., March 30.—Impatching proceedings closed this afternoon with a verdict of guilty against the absconding treasurer and his removal from office.

The custom observed every fourth year of permitting the fair sex to assume the rights and prerogatives appertaining to their brothers during the remaining three is a very ancient one. When it originated is not definitely known, but a law enacted by the parliament of Scotland in the year of 1288 is doubtless the first statutory recognition of the custom. The law was as follows: "It is statut and ordain that during the reime of her maiest blisful megastie, ilk fourth year, known as leap-year, ilk maiden ladye of bairn high and low estate, shall have liberty to bespeak ye man she likes; albeit, gif he refuse to tak hir to be his wyf, he shall be mulcted in ye summe of ane undie or less, as his estate most be, except and awis gif he can mak it appear that he is betrothit to aine ither woman, that he shall then be free."

Uncle Remus has wisely declared that "mule don't kick 'ording to no rule," and "that colts have no systematic way of taking hold of a person." The only safe cure, when they do, is a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

BAD SWITCHMEN.

They Indulge in a Little Riot, But the Burlington Stands Firm—The Situation To-day.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The first encounter between the sympathizers of the striking switchmen and the men who have replaced them took place last evening, when a "Q" switch engine and crew attempted to transfer some freight cars to the Northwestern. A crowd of switchmen of other roads were about the place and began to jeer at the new men on the "Q" engine. The train reached Kinzie street and Western avenue, when it ran off a switch that had been turned and a number of cars were derailed. The mob then set upon the crew of the engine and train, and the fireman and engineer took to their heels, getting numerous cuffs as they escaped. The new switchmen followed suit, but were pursued and roughly used by the crowd, which was made up of the roughest kind of citizens.

The Pinkerton men, of whom there were six or eight on the train, attempted to protect the trainmen, but the mob set upon them with savage glee and disarmed them in a twinkling. They were powerless, and after a few efforts to defend themselves, took to flight to escape the drubbing they were receiving at the hands of the furious mob. Several Pinkerton men were hurt and one is thought to have sustained serious injuries. On the same train was Division Superintendent John Bower, of Burlington. When the trouble commenced he hurried to the front and some one in the crowd recognized him. The disclosure of his identity was the signal for the mob to fall on him and beat him. The attack came from all sides and it was only after having been badly used up that he escaped and ran to the switch house, where he looked himself in and escaped from further punishment. The riot created great excitement and Pinkerton men and officers flocked to the scene. The mob quickly dispersed, however, and only one man was arrested. His name is Will Quirk.

Numerous offers of bail were tendered and $5,000 surety for his appearance was offered but he was locked up. When the crowd realized that their comrade had to remain in the police station, the Milwaukee and St. Paul men in their rage decided to strike immediately and deserted their engines. The whole yard force of switchmen, engineers and firemen, 327 in all, quit work, leaving twenty-eight engines standing on the tracks.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul yardmen were required to put on the track the cars which they had derailed yesterday as the first work after their strike, but they refused and said they would not handle any cars pulled by "Q" engines. As a direct and immediate consequence of the strike the entire night freight traffic, both through and local, was completely suspended. The passenger engineers were with difficulty restrained from striking. The leading spirits among the strikers decided not to interfere with the passenger trains at least not until this morning.

The switchmen engineers and firemen of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, who struck yesterday, assembled at the yards at Western avenue and Kinzie street this morning, but none went to work. The passenger trains are moving but the freight business is tied up. There was no effort on the part of the police to disperse the men. The riot of yesterday afternoon has had its effect on the new switchmen in the employ of the Burlington. Only those whose business kept them within the "Q" yards were at work this morning.

When those who are delegated to work with the engines along the tracks between the different points, were balked upon to go out with the engines they refused, saying they did not want to trust themselves on the outside, and that they would not go unless provided with arms, to defend themselves.

Mr. Morton said: "If every man on the road except the general passenger agent struck we should still keep up the fight."

"We have the law on our side and we do not propose to back down. Mr. Arthur promised he would call the strike off if the Burlington could get along without the brotherhood. We did get along without them and he inaugurated the boycott. The courts ruled against the boycott and then followed the switchmen's strike. We shall not weaken after having gone so far."

AUBURN, Ill., March 30.—Another case of incendiarism is charged by the Burlington officials at Downers Grove. A passenger coach on the side track, along with several other passenger cars, was set on fire about 1 o'clock this morning. The other cars were detached and pulled out of danger. The car is ruined.

MILWAUKEE, March 30.—Manager Miller, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, in an interview with an Associated Press reporter this morning, said there was no truth in the statement made by the switchmen at Chicago that the St. Paul company had been secretly aiding the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy company.

"The trouble is," said Mr. Miller, "that the Chicago switchmen have combined to make a thorough boycott and in sympathy with the movement, our men refused to handle some of the new cars brought to us by the Burlington from the factory of Wells, French & Co., which is on the line of the Burlington road. The cars were empty, and we told the men that they did not handle these cars they

This morning a train of stock cars left the "Q" yards, at Western avenue, for the stock yards, fourteen Pinkerton men guarding the train. As it was passing a Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburgh engine, a brakeman on the latter threw two coupling pins at the crew of the "Q" engine. One of them struck W. W. Thomas, a fireman, in the right eye and knocked him senseless. The police saw the occurrence, but made no effort to make an arrest. The Pinkerton men telephoned the Western avenue station to have the crew of the Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburgh engine arrested.

Switchman Quirk, who was at the riot at the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway yesterday, was fined $5 and costs.

THOMAS HAUER, Ind., March 30.—Vigo Lodge, No. 16, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, has authorized a volunteer committee to solicit subscriptions among the railroad men of this city in support of the striking firemen of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

THE CAPITAL CITY.

Chief Justice Waite Died a Peer Man—Congressional Proceedings To-day.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president has approved the urgent deficiency appropriation bill.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Since the death of Chief Justice Waite it has been developed that for a man in his exalted position he possessed practically nothing except his home. When he came to Washington he was a poor man, and at his death all his savings as chief justice were represented in his 11 street home.

The salary of the chief justice is $10,500 per annum, the highest paid any official of the government except the president and the few foreign ministers representing first-class missions. A few years ago the chief justice purchased the residence on I street occupied by him, and paid for it out of his salary. He did not live pretentiously, but had a wide circle of friends whom he entertained generously, and this consumed the remainder of his compensation after the payments were made in the house. All that is left his widow is the residence and an insurance of $4,000 which the chief justice carried on his life.

On motion of McCrary, the senate amendments were non-concurred in to the house bill authorizing the president to arrange a conference for the purpose of encouraging reciprocal commercial relations between the United States and the republics of Mexico, Central and South America and the empire of Brazil. The house bill granting a pension of $3,000 per annum to Mary B. Logan and a separate bill increasing it to $2,000 a year the pension of Appolina Blair, were considered.

The house passed the senate bill providing for the erection of monuments at the Gettysburg battlefield to the memory of the regular soldiers. The house passed a bill granting a pension to the widow of General Logan.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

Brief Talks With the Hon. Hugh Dougherty and O. J. Gleason.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 30.—The Hon. Hugh Dougherty, of Bluffton, one of the best known and most popular citizens of Northern Indiana, and who will be a candidate before the democratic convention for the nomination for auditor of state, is at the Grand hotel. Mr. Dougherty says that in the northern part of the state the democrats are all in line and ready for the approaching contest; and he has no fears of the result. He thinks that the party in that section is pretty well divided between Myers and Mason for governor.

Judge O. J. Gleason, of Shelbyville, who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for attorney general, is also at the Grand hotel. The judge is making an active canvass and is greatly encouraged with his prospects. He says that in all of the counties that he has visited, the democrats are united and harmonious and are confident of victory in November. Judge Gleason, if nominated, would doubtless command the full strength of his party and the respect of the opposition.

WOMAN MURDERED.

By Her Husband, Who Commits Suicide—Twelve Children Poisoned.

CHICAGO, March 30.—August Krakow shot and instantly killed his wife at No. 642 Milwaukee avenue about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He then fatally shot himself, dying about 7 o'clock.

The police found Mrs. Krakow sitting in a rocking chair, with two bullet holes in her head. She appeared to have died instantly. On the lounge in the rear room lay the husband, who was also dead.

The most shocking stories are prevalent in the vicinity where the Krakows lived as to the death of all the members of the family. There were twelve in all, it is said, not one of whom survives. Mr. Krakow, who was sixty-two years of age, it was said, that his wife poisoned all the children and attempted to poison him, and that this was one of the causes why he left her.

FOUR DROWNED!

By the Great Floods in the Southern States—The Waters Rising and Houses are Abandoned.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 30.—In the general report in yesterday's dispatch the Atlanta and Great Southern road should have been excepted from the statement that all the roads leading to Birmingham were blocked by the washouts.

The Tombigbee at Columbus, Miss., is still rising and is only eighteen inches below high water mark. The lower portions of the city have been abandoned and the water is several feet deep in many houses at Evergreen.

On the Mobile division of the Louisville and Nashville no trains have passed since Tuesday. The water is falling and may be down to its nominal height by Saturday. It is now thought all the roads will be open by Sunday. The Herald special shows that four persons have been drowned.

DETROIT, March 30.—By an overflow of several streams in this county sixty bridges have been washed away and about 700 acres of land flooded, destroying many acres of wheat.

A CHICAGO BLAZE.

One Man Burned to Death and Several Injured.

CHICAGO, March 30.—A fire started early this morning in the five-story block at the corner of Lake and Pecan streets. It is believed one man was burned to death in the cottage next to the factory. Two or three firemen were seriously injured. Marshal Murphy, with thirteen men, who were preparing to leave the fourth floor, where they had been working, were knocked down and badly bruised by a terrible explosion. The losses will aggregate $500,000. Davis & Eakin, dairy supplies; the Zimmerman Refrigerator Co., Linn, Weaver & Co., brewers; and the Gem Printing Press Co., are the principal losers. Insurance, small.

MASSACHUSETTS, March 30.—A fire early this morning at Coldwater, Mass., destroyed ten business houses. The total loss is about $22,000, insurance about one-half.

PANAMA, Ind., March 30.—A fire broke out yesterday in a large frame barn belonging to Wm. Rogers, a drayman. Before the fire was extinguished it destroyed all the contents of the barn.

SOLDIERS REUNION.

Of the Armies of the Potomac and Northern Virginia at Gettysburg.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The arrangements for the reunion of the survivors of the Army of the Potomac, with the survivors of the Army of Northern Virginia are progressing satisfactorily. Hon. George William Curtis will deliver the oration. George Parsons Lathrop, the poet, and Bishop Horatio Potter, of New York, the address of welcome. Some distinguished Confederate will make the reply to the address of welcome. The reunion will be on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of July next, at Gettysburg, and will conclude with a grand banquet.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

Bulgaria Wants an Explanation—The Emperor Takes a Drive.

SOFIA, March 30.—Bulgaria has asked the pasha to explain the presence of the Turkish troops at the town of Mustapha Pasha, on the frontier.

BELMONT, March 30.—Emperor Frederick and Empress Victoria drove in a half open carriage from Charlottenburg to Berlin to-day and paid a visit to the dowager Empress Augusta.

Died For His Children's Sake.

COSMOPOLIS, O., March 30.—Frederick Markley, a farmer, committed suicide near here to-day. He had a life interest in the farm on which he lived and at his death the property was to go to his heirs. He had met with financial reverses, and when the sheriff went to-day to levy on the property Markley killed himself to save the farm for his children.

Safe In Canada.

BALTIMORE, N. C., March 30.—It is learned that telegrams were received to-day from both Cross and White, the president and cashier of the State National bank, and that the former is in Toronto and the latter at Montreal. Both men deserted their families, as did the negro janitor, John Griffith, who went with them.

Pardoned.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 30.—Governor Jackson last night pardoned the seven democratic judges and clerks of election who were found guilty of having perpetrated the frauds at the polls two years ago. They were sentenced on June 27 last, to two years imprisonment.

Tate's Defalcation.

LOUISVILLE, March 30.—The impeachment trial was resumed at Frankfort to-day. Auditor Hewitt in his testimony stated that as well as he was able to judge at the present time the defalcation would amount to $204,000.

Christ Ruppe was fined by Justice Ryan for assault on Louis Walker.

A MINE HORROR.

An Explosion in a Missouri Mine Impresses a Hundred Men—Many are Killed Outright.

RICH HILL, Mo., March 30.—The most horrible mine disaster that has ever occurred in the west, happened at noon yesterday in Keith & Parry's No. 6 mine, and as a result a large number of men are entombed, and thousands of dollars' worth of property destroyed. Just at the dinner hour when the men were descending eight at a time in the cage, a terrible gas explosion occurred, filling every entry with a flame of fire which shot out of the shaft a distance of a hundred and forty feet. The mine is situated six miles distant from the town. There were two explosions, and it is said the total loss of life will reach sixty. Rich Hill is in Bates county, one hundred miles south of Kansas City, on the Missouri Pacific railroad, in the center of the coal mining district of Missouri.

THE LATEST PARTICULARS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 30.—A dispatch was sent from Richhill, Mo., at 4:30 this morning concerning yesterday's mine disaster, saying the work of rescuing was delayed many hours. The cries of the imprisoned men could be heard but they grew fainter and fainter and by 9 o'clock ceased altogether. Thus far five have been taken out dead and fifteen alive. Most of the latter have suffered intensely from the fire and suffocation and their recovery is very doubtful.

Frank Carr, foreman of the mine, was in at the time of the explosion, but not injured. Fifteen now remain in the mine, being in the west end, and it is believed that most of them will be taken out dead.

The work proceeds very slowly, being attended with great danger. R. H. Keith, president of the Keith & Parry Co., said nothing definite can be known until the fire is put out and they can get in and make an examination. The state inspector of mines went through the mine two weeks ago and made a report pronouncing it in splendid condition.

In the Bohemian case of Ermine vs. Shook the jury in the superior court gave a verdict against the note.

The funeral of Mrs. Alexander Stewart occurred this afternoon from the south depot, her remains having arrived from Nebraska.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says: "Miss Edith Brackbridge, of Fort Wayne, is expected shortly to visit Miss Florence Braun."

Joseph Brannan, Indianapolis; W. H. Hays, Monroeville; W. H. Grayless, Van Wert; Robert W. Burns, Dayton, Ohio, are among the guests at the Wayne hotel.

The funeral of Miss Ellen Donovan, whose death was mentioned in THE SENTINEL yesterday, will occur Monday morning at 9 o'clock, from the home, on East Main street, with high mass at the Cathedral.

A telephone alarm came in this afternoon from the fair grounds. It was said that the stables out there were burning. Chief Hiltsch went out to see before sending the engines to the scene. The damage consisted of the destruction of a few boards.

Charles Pantlind, son of Mr. Henry Pantlind, died this morning from consumption, aged nineteen years. The young man was bright and promising, but this dread disease rears the best of them, and Mr. Pantlind has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in his loss. The funeral occurs to-morrow at 2 o'clock from No. 28 East Main street.

The Monroeville Breeze says: "At the residence of Mr. Henry Miner, of this township, by the Rev. O. W. Bowen, Mr. Preston Carrier, of Dixon, Ohio, and Miss Rachel Rice, of Fort Wayne, Ind., were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. As the young lady is quite handsome, Mr. Carrier is now in possession of the finest bunch of rice ever seen in Dixon."

A brutal sparring match for $100 and the gate money was fought at Peru, Wednesday, between Van Needon, champion light weight of St. Paul, and John McCracken, a home aspirant for prize ring honors. Sports from Logansport, Indianapolis, Fort Wayne and Chicago were present. Egan from the start it was plain that Needon was too much for his opponent, who persisted in standing up to him until separated by the officers at the end of the thirty-second round. McCracken is badly used up, but it is thought he is not seriously injured by his three hours' encounter.

IT WAS CHOLERA.

One of the Crew of a British Steamer Dies of That Disease at Nantucket, Mass.

NANTUCKET, Mass., March 30.—Robert Williams, of North Wales, twenty-one years old, one of the crew of the British steamer Cannonbury, which was sunk Wednesday afternoon, died yesterday morning. Dr. Kite, of Nantucket, and Dr. Sharp, the later professor in the University of Pennsylvania, examined the case and found that the symptoms of the man's disease were those of cholera. It was decided to quarantine the entire crew, twenty-three men, for a time. The old railroad station at Surfside has been assigned as the quarantine station.

A BRILLIANT OPENING.

The Mammoth Clothing Establishment of Sam, Pete & Max a Scene of Splendor and Gayety.

The opening of the mammoth clothing establishment of Sam, Pete & Max, in their new and handsome rooms at No. 58 Calhoun street, last night, was the event of the season and eclipsed even the most sanguine expectations of the thousands of persons who witnessed it.

Long before 7 o'clock, the hour announced for opening the room, the pavement on Calhoun street was blockaded by a large and anxious crowd. Promptly at 7 o'clock the City band, which had been engaged to furnish music for the occasion, struck up a lively quadrille on the inside, the doors were thrown open and the crowd commenced to pour in. There was a jam and in almost less time than it takes to write these lines the building was packed. A full force of clerks and ushers were at hand to pass people through as quickly as possible, so that all could be accommodated. The doors opening on Harmony court were opened for exit, and the big crowd was kept moving in one direction all the while, and an immense crowd it was. It was variously estimated, but 7,500 people would certainly be a small figure.

Some estimate of the multitude that passed through the building may be formed from a knowledge of the fact that 2,500 pencil tablets as souvenirs for gentlemen, and 2,000 very handsome writing tablets for ladies had been provided, and that before 9 o'clock all were exhausted.

So far as location of their store room is concerned no better could be found in Fort Wayne. It is right in the heart of the business center of the city, in a magnificent block, and it is on the right side of the street. The store room has a front of thirty feet and a depth of 150 feet with solid glass front and rear, while a clear skylight furnishes light for the central portion of the room.

Words fail to do full justice to the work that these enterprising gentlemen have just completed at such an enormous expense. Their store room is a perfect beauty. The massive show windows present an artistic dressing not surpassed by any on Broadway, New York. The array of rich and attractive goods with which the tables and shelves were loaded, speaks volumes for the taste of the managers, who have selected their stock from the leading makers of America and Europe. The ceilings are truly a work of art, and must be seen to be appreciated. The furniture is the work of the well known artists, Messrs. Philippon, of Chicago, who, in fact did all the art decorative work, and they may well feel proud of the result.

The office in the center of the spacious building is connected by the Bar cash system with every department. The rear has been set apart for the comfort of the little folks, and is as sumptuous and homelike as a private parlor. Their opening was a grand success and the gentlemen can well feel proud of it.

Incandescent Light.

The Jenney Electric Light and Power company are constructing and will soon have in operation an incandescent light system. The company will furnish light in business places without extra charge for wiring to all those who subscribe for the same before the 1st of May, 1888. The expense for electrical appliances, wiring, etc., amounts to nearly one-half a year's rental for the light. This liberal offer of furnishing all wiring free to those customers who subscribe before May 1, will hold good only until that time, after which from wiring will be discontinued. That's So

Relief is certain for the dependent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmonds Liver Regulator, easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is an intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver. Take it once and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for dyspepsia, liver affection and debility, but never have found anything to benefit me so much as this Simmonds Liver Regulator. I would advise all who are similarly afflicted to give it a trial. It seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. JAMES, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmonds Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me has taken it for years. Rev. M. BOLLING, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va. Sold by all Druggists. Prepared by J. A. & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Votes for free roads and give the city and county a boom.

It is estimated that the decrease in the public debt for the month of March will amount to nearly $10,000,000.

The Ligonier Banner, edited by Colonel I. R. McDonald's son, learns towards the candidacy of Hon. E. W. Brown for auditor of state.

At Lafayette, yesterday, a general competitive examination was held at the G. A. R. hall for the West Point cadetship, with eight applicants for the place. At Fort Wayne, the silk stocking Morton club named the West Point student without giving the young men of Fort Wayne, let alone the district, a chance to be heard.

Next Monday, April 2, is the township election day. Good township officers are as necessary as good general officers. A township trustee is an important officer. He controls the public schools, appoints the teachers, he fixes the township tax levy, has charge of the poor and looks after the roads. Mr. George W. Brackenridge is equal to the task in every respect.

The Chicago Tribune thinks that "the cooler heads in the republican party are beginning to see that it will not be safe to go into the presidential campaign occupying the position on the tariff question assumed by Mr. Blaine and Mr. Channing Depew." And it warns the "ultra-tariff republicans of the east" that "without some concessions on their part and reasonable regard for the convictions of western republicans it will be impossible for the party to elect a president in this year of grace 1908."

The Huntington Democrat remarks: "Hon. Hugh Dougherty, of Bluffton, has consented to the use of his name as a candidate for the democratic nomination for auditor of state. Probably no man could be found in Indiana that would add more strength, popularity and confidence to any ticket than Mr. Dougherty. He is able, conscientious and straightforward and no where in his whole life is there a stain. He is one of the very best of men and the democratic convention will do itself proud by giving him the place on the state ticket that his friends are asking for him."

Mr. Wm. W. Dunbar Foxworth, of Richmond, Ind., president of the Indiana Civil Service Reform association, organized for retaining republicans in office, has been in Washington, weeping, wailing and gnashing his teeth because certain democrats have been appointed to and retained in positions in the Indianapolis postoffice. There is real, poignant grief in Mr. Foxworth's statement: "Well, we have not had any civil service reform in Indiana." It is really a very sad case, but will Mr. Foxworth or his hearer, the Gazette, tell us when civil service reforms ever led republicans into the wholesome practice of appointing or retaining democrats in office? We pause for a reply from the partisan sucklings.

The Gazette could not restrain its wrath any longer and this morning administers to ex-Senator Harrison a stinging rebuke over the shoulders of his bosom friend and companion, Correspondent Smith, of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette. Colonel Leonard breaks out at Smith and Harrison in this fashion: "The presence of the odious W. E. Smith, the Indianapolis correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, with Mr. Harrison, however, was not calculated to make General Harrison any friends. This hiring of a traducer and vilifier of Judge Grohman is just at present creating more discord in the republican party of this state than all the other distasteful elements put together. He is an eyesore to most of the republicans in this city, and he is a person with whom no prominent man, and least of all, General Harrison can afford to have much to do. This man Smith, and a few more nincompoops of his ilk, ought to be frowned down by every well meaning republican in Indiana, in the interest of harmony."

The west would have been free from labor troubles during the winter just gone had it not been for the mischievous and ruinous "Q" strike.

The body is more susceptible to heat from Hood's Sarsaparilla now than at any other season. Therefore take it now.

NATIONAL BEAUTY SHOW.

The one who smiles the sweetest will take the cake.

THAT COWARDLY SPEECH.

Ingalls Will Have a Chance to Try Ourselves.

Senator Ingalls undoubtedly knows by this time that even from a partisan political standpoint he made a miserable mistake in delivering his recent speech in the senate. His abuse of Hancock and McCallan finds but a faint approving response from even the most rabid party organs, while it is being resented in such a manner by many of the soldiers of the country, irrespective of politics, as to make the rebuke to the Kansas senator conspicuously severe. That a man of Mr. Ingalls' ability and ambition should descend to bid for the favor of the soldiers in the discredit of his own name, and in the indignation and condemnation of the soldiers, must be extremely humiliating to him. It will probably be many a moon before he has anything to say in public again about the war, or those who figured in it. If he is as shrewd as he has been heretofore credited with being, he will leave henceforth a field in which he has made such a spectacular failure to more successful cultivators of it, like the governor of Ohio, who, even if he were to provoke such a rebuke as the Kansas has received, is so small that it would never hit him.

Meanwhile, as he is pondering in penitence over the blunders of a politician, he might reflect advantageously on another of his declarations made in his recent speech, when he proclaimed, with what was intended as withering sarcasm, that after the nomination of Grover Cleveland there is no man in this country "whose obscurity is so impenetrable that he has no right to aspire to the presidential nomination of the Democratic party."

In the course of his reflections perhaps Mr. Ingalls will be able to arrive at some definite conclusion as to the exact time at which obscurity became a crime under our government, or a disability in the path of the citizen of the United States who dares direct his ambition to the presidency of a republic built upon the principle that all men are equal. Perhaps Mr. Ingalls will also be able to explain, at least to his own satisfaction, how it is that in measuring the Democratic party for nominating a man who not so many years ago was undoubtedly an obscure man, he can at the same time escape censuring the Republican party on the same ground. Who was more obscure than the now illustrious Lincoln, the first of the Republican presidents? Did President Grant emerge from less "impenetrable obscurity" than any man who ever rose to fame? Even the now distinguished and canonized Hayes was not always like the effulgent luminary which he became when he shot above the Ohio horizon and achieved notoriety as the first and only man who ever robbed the people of the presidency. It was the boast of the Republicans during the Garfield campaign that their leader had risen from the humble obscurity of the township, and President Arthur's name was hardly known outside of New York before Secretary Sherman gave him prominence by summarily turning him out of the quorum house.

Where then is the Republican president who was not guilty of the crime of obscurity, if this modern apostle of Republicanism insist on denouncing it as a crime?

Perhaps Senator Ingalls is in favor of making the presidency hereditary, as the crowns of Europe are, conferring the honor upon some distinguished family, and providing that it shall descend in a regular line of succession to whatever unobscure anticompoop who happens to be born in that line. By this means the danger of any political party nominating and electing an obscure candidate would be effectually guarded against, and all citizens of the nation would be saved the trouble of trying to overcome the sin of obscurity.

To say the least, this is a very prevalent sin among the citizens of this country. It is even rumored—upon how trustworthy authority we do not pretend to say—that Senator Ingalls himself was not so very long ago, an obscure peddler. But we know of no one who would think less of Mr. Ingalls on that account, unless it is Mr. Ingalls himself. Indeed, if the goods he peddled were honest we are very much inclined to think that most people in this country have greater respect for Mr. Ingalls as a peddler than they have for him when, as a senator, he deals in such shoddy pinhead wares as he purveyed when he delivered his speech in the senate.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

An Edifying Spectacle.

Mr. Blaine is expected to go into the campaign and "fight in his shirt sleeves as he used to in Maine." Brother Clarke says: "Very much depends on Mr. Blaine whether we shall have a Republican president elected this year. And every Republican in the land, whether Blaine or anti-Blaine, thrills with delight and is strong with confidence because he knows that party dependence on Blaine is safe and sure." The Mulligan-Fisher Fort Smith and Little Rock hero on the stump for Judge Grohman, for example, would be indeed an extremely edifying spectacle. The stupendous altitude of its absurdity would not fail to impress even Mr. Blaine himself.—Chicago Herald.

A Cause for Embarrassment.

Mr. Lincoln declines the presidency with great frequency nowadays. If the gentlemen in various obscure towns who are tendering him this high office with so much enthusiasm do not look out he will accept it some time, and then there will be more or less embarrassment on one side or the other.—Chicago Herald.

The Truth Hard to Recognize.

It may be annoying to Mr. Blaine to find that so many people still doubt the sincerity of his several withdrawals, but he now perceives and feels the momentum of a reputation for wild statements. A man may tell the truth and still make a great deal that he doesn't say.—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

A Few Gratuitous Suggestions.

The grand old Republican party appears to be put so sadly to its trumps for a ticket that we cannot forbear throwing out the following suggestions, gratuitously:

For president—J. B. Foraker, of Ohio.
For vice president—J. J. Ingalls, of Kansas.
Platform—The rebel flag and John Brown.
For president—George Fria Hoar, of Massachusetts.
For vice president—R. G. Horr, of Michigan.
Platform—Piousness and bad grammar.
For president—J. Sherman, of Ohio.
For vice president—W. M. Everts, of New York.
Platform—Hayesism frapped.
For president—C. M. Depew, of New York.
For vice president—M. A. Hanna, of Ohio.
Platform—Anti-monopoly.
For president—Jay Hubbell, of Michigan.
For vice president—Powell Clayton, of Arkansas.
Platform—Civil service reform.
For president—B. G. Ingersoll, of New York.
For vice president—Carl Schurz, of Missouri.
Platform—God in the constitution.—Chicago News.

A Total Wreck.

Senator Ingalls is being denounced in every state of the Union for his slanders of Hancock and McCallan, and though he has the secret sympathy of the bigoted element of his party, even Republicans celebrated for bigotry have repudiated party responsibility for his ungoverned tongue. The exposure of his "war record" in Kansas has followed his corruption and discomfiture, and "the good of the party" it will be necessary to keep him in the background until the incident is forgotten. A more bungled and frowzy member of the Brahmin caste than he is politically at present it would be hard to find anywhere.—St. Louis Republican.

Look Out for Fun.

There promises to be fun and furor in the forthcoming Republican national convention. Mr. Blaine's letter has left his great following in a state of anxiety not easily to be relieved. It would seem that the natural result should be the selection of a large list of "war-criminals," whose state following will have no faith in the success of their nominal candidates, and who will be ready to jump for the winner the moment that they can form an intelligent opinion of who he is likely to be. In the search for such an one is afforded every opportunity for a free fight of portentous proportions.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Utterly Worthless.

It will be remembered that three years ago Senator Ingalls wrote a letter in which he declared, in substance, that Cleveland was a good president, was doing his duty, and would probably make a successful administration. This, viewed in connection with his recent vile and senseless assaults on the president, shows how worthless are the statements of this cheap and windy demagogue.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Unnecessary.

Mr. Henry Grady's reply to Senator Ingalls is merely and dignified. But it seems to us that Mr. Grady put himself to unnecessary trouble in adopting an argumentative style. It is like a gentleman arguing with a street Arab.—Kansas City Times.

Helping the Cause.

Ingalls' assault on McCallan and Hancock makes New Jersey surely Democratic, and Pennsylvania a doubtful state. The Democrats should encourage the Jayhawkers to speak often.—St. Louis Republican.

CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM WALTERS of New Jersey, O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, and Townsend, of Illinois, daily appear on the floor of the House adorned with neckties of brilliant scarlet hue. Congressman Bowen, of Pennsylvania, always exhibits a broad expanse of shirt bosom, laid bare by a low-cut vest, and a white tie belittles the effect.

MAX O'NEILL is writing a book about the United States upon the general plan of "John Bull and His Island," and is paying the way for it with this sort of taffy: "I have seen no stonier face here, and I have noticed a prodigious activity that prevails everywhere. I have nothing but admiration for you beautiful and graceful women, and particularly your bewitching widows."

A CORRESPONDENT writes to the Boston Journal: "Reading accounts of so many being lost in the snow and fog, I would call your attention to a simple means of determining the position of the sun at any time of the day, which is by placing the point of a knife-blade or a sharp lead-pencil on the thumb nail, which will cast a shadow directly from the sun, no matter how thick the snow or fog is. Try it."

INDIA is rapidly becoming the rival of the United States in the production of wheat. Statistics have it that this production of wheat in all India was in 1883-84, 251,690,880 bushels; in 1884-85, 299,155,584 bushels; in 1885-86, 268,817,632 bushels, and the estimate is that for the year 1886-87, the product will be 262,000,000 bushels. The population of India is estimated at 200,000,000, but all of the people do not eat wheat bread. Of the crop of 1886-87, the estimate is that there will be 35,000,000 bushels for export. Suppose the same quantity is reserved for seed; in that case the consumption would be 192,000,000 bushels, less than three-fourths of a bushel per capita.

MINISTER HUON, the Chinese representative at Washington, enjoys himself immensely at the Capitol. At a recent reception he was observed dressed in snow-white brocade, sitting under a palm tree, a la Turc, and drinking punch, which a bevy of fair American maidens were dispensing from a huge bowl near at hand. Huon speaks only a few words of English, but he smiles and smiles and is a tiresome still. His vast admiration for highly-favored punch and pretty women is well-known in Washington, and no one thinks the less of him for it. "He's so oriental, you know," exclaimed a gushing girl recently.

A CHICAGO man has invented a corset that will register hugs. He thinks there will be a great demand for them at the watering places this summer. Directions for artistic hugging will go with each corset. From a gallery-proof of them it is learned that this corset's padding should be made intermittent, perfection being dependent upon keeping perfect time with the natural pulsating of the lady's bosom. Should the conversation drag and be uninteresting the lady will breathe languidly. And at times, as for Miss Bell when a declaration of love, romance or bogia, is in progress, her breath will come and go at a rate much faster.

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL stands six feet high in his stockings, and is as straight as his maternal grandfather, the famous Admiral Charles Stewart—"Old Ironsides." He is in his 42nd year, and, according to his latest latest view, is in the full enjoyment of good health. He wears a full beard, parted in the middle, and a heavy mustache. Mr. Parnell's home in Ireland has been in the family long enough to be stamped with its character, and is a very comfortable and attractive place. Mrs. Parnell, the mother, who was a Miss Delia Stewart, of Rordown, N. J., has left her home on the banks of the Delaware, and is now visiting her son.

Mrs. Wren, the pretty Bostonian wife of the "Belfast Spider," went to see her husband light Miller at Minneapolis. It was her first prize fight. She and half a dozen veiled members of the fair sex occupied the suspended stand behind the preliminary contest, and when it was time for him to don his professional regalia he bid her good-by and started for the dressing room. When the "Spider's" wife saw in the Western lad a fighter of larger proportions than her husband, she began to cry before the men came together. Every time that Miller would strike, or appear to strike his antagonist, Mrs. Wren would utter a shriek loud enough to be heard by the spectators seated immediately below. She nearly went into hysterics when she saw the "spider" streaming down her husband's face in the third round, but rapidly recovered composure when she saw that Miller was being thrashed; and her features, though pale, wore a pleased expression when the contest ended in her spouse's favor.

Don't Get Caught

This spring, your blood full of impurities, your digestion impaired, your appetite poor, kidneys and liver torpid, and whole system liable to be prostrated by disease—but get yourself into good condition, and ready for the changing and warmer weather, by taking Blood's Purifier. It stands unequalled for purifying the blood, giving an appetite, and for a general spring medicine.

SENATOR BLACKBURN has recently returned from California, and this is a steal from his experience: "I was robbed going there, while there, and returning home. The trunks of my family were untrapped, unlocked, and everything valuable in the way of jewelry and trinkets was taken out and the trunks looked and resealed. The robbers must have occurred on the cars. In addition to this I had to pay four and five prices for everything I was compelled to purchase. It seemed to be a complete system of organized extortion and robbery on every hand."

DR. N. A. ROUSSEL, a Brooklyn dentist, has a 5-year-old Laverick setter, Juno by name, that is of excellent pedigree and highly valued. Noticing one day that the dog had a decayed tooth and was apparently suffering from it, he placed her in his dentist's chair and proceeded to fill it with gold exactly as he would the tooth of a human being. In concluding an extended account of the novel operation the Brooklyn Eagle says: "During the entire operation the animal made no sign or sound of disapproval further than to be a trifle uneasy. He sat in the dentist's chair like a good child. The operation occupied over an hour. Juno is the first dog to go on record as having a gold-filled tooth, or a tooth filled with anything, for that matter."

JOHN M'GLONE, of Dover, N. H., missed his spaniel dog. He searched high and low for it, but without success. He imagined that he used to hear the dog's bark occasionally near the house, and concluded that some neighbor must have the brute tied up, and began to keep a sharp lookout. Just seventeen days after the dog was missed he was sitting in his garden near a dinner table, when he heard a faint bark as if issuing from the wall. He made an examination, and, sure enough, at the bottom, in nine inches of water, he found the lost dog. It was nearly a skeleton, but by care and attention it recovered, and is to-day a very excellent, well-trained watch dog.

PHOT. BELL's wife lost, at the Bayard reception in Washington, a diamond ring valued at $2,000. A reward of $100 was offered for its recovery. A day or two afterward it was picked up in the dressing-room, where Mrs. Bell had dropped it, by Miss Bayard. On receiving the missing jewel, Mrs. Bell sent a check for $100 to Miss Bayard, with the request that she would apply it, in her own discretion, to charity.

Loss of Manhood, Impotence, Early Decay, Etc., Cured. A Treatise on the subject sent free to any address. THE VAN BUREN CO., P. O. Box 774, New London, Conn.

MRS. LETITIA TYLER SEMPLE, a daughter of the late President Tyler, is almost totally blind, and is at present an inmate of the Louisa Home, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Semple is a handsome, distinguished-looking woman, in manner and speech of the old school. Her profile is an exact reproduction of that of her famous father. Her finely cut features show no marks of age. Her snow-white hair is worn, according to the traditions of her youth, in soft curls about her shapely head. Mrs. Semple was the first woman to enter a hospital during the war as nurse.

The following are excerpts from the school examination papers and essays of "original thinkers" in grammar and high-school grades given by the Boston Journal of Education: "Janndies, a scandal"; "Mosquito, a child of white and black parents"; "Herodotus was a descendant of Herod the Great, and he was King of the Jews"; "The Aryans spoke the French language"; "Virgil was a great American author"; "Diogenes was a great philosopher and a successor to Alexander the Great"; "Longfellow wrote 'Paradise Lost' and 'Paradise Regained';" "Hawthorne wrote 'Mosses from an Old Manse';" "Plato was the Father of Language, and his language was so perfect that it is said that if Jupiter were to speak he would speak Plato."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla was the first successful blood medicine ever offered to the public. This preparation is still held in the highest public estimation both at home and abroad. Its miraculous cures and immense sales show this. Ask your druggist for it.

It sounds a little "fishy," yet it is declared to be a fact, that during the sinking of large pits and wells in Nevada a stratum of rock salt was cut through in which were found imbedded perfectly preserved fish, which are doubtless thousands of years old, as the salt field occupies what was once the bottom of a large lake, and no such fish are now to be found in any of the modern Nevada lakes. The specimens are not petrified, but fresh, and all are preserved in perfect form, and after being soaked in fresh water for two or three days can be cooked and eaten, but are not very palatable. After being exposed to the air and sun for a day or two, they become as hard as wood.

She Tried and Knows.

A leading chemist of New York says: "No plaster of such merit as the Athlo-phos-Phos Plaster has ever before been produced." They are a novelty because they are not made simply to sell cheap. They are the best that science, skill and money can produce, and will do what is claimed for them. For sprains, aches, weakness, lameness, etc., they are unequalled.

At Palace St., New York, N. Y., the Athlo-phos-Phos Plaster is sold by all druggists. Do not be deceived by cheap imitations. The Athlo-phos-Phos Plaster is sold by all druggists. Do not be deceived by cheap imitations.

Why You Feel

So weak and exhausted is because your blood is impure. As well expect the sanitary condition of a city to be perfect with polluted water and defective sewerage, as to expect such a complicated piece of mechanism as the human frame to be in good order with impure blood circulating even to its minutest veins. Do you know that every drop of your two or three gallons of blood passes through the heart and lungs in about two and a half minutes, and that on its way, it makes bone and muscle, brain and nerve, and all other solids and fluids of the body? The blood is the great nourisher, or, as the Bible terms it,

"The Life of the Body."

It is any wonder, then, that if the blood be not pure and perfect in its constitution, you suffer so many indescribable symptoms?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla stands "head and shoulders" above every other Alternative and Blood Medicine. As proof, read these reliable testimonies:

G. O. Brock, of Lowell, Mass., says: "For the past 25 years I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In my opinion, the best remedial agencies for the cure of all the diseases arising from impurities of the blood are contained in this medicine."

Eugene I. Hill, M. D., 381 Sixth Ave., New York, says: "As a blood-purifier and general builder-up of the system, I have never found anything to equal Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It gives perfect satisfaction."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla proves equally efficacious in all forms of Scrofula, Boils, Carbuncles, Eczema, Humors, Lumbago, Catarrh, &c., and is, therefore, the very best

The entertainments at Princess rink still continue to draw large audiences, and Dr. White Cloud says business is so good and there is such a great demand for Ka-fo-ka and other Indian remedies that he will not close here until April 30.
Cedar, Beach and Turkey Lake will blossom out next season in grand style. Immense additions will be added to the Cedar Beach hotel, and we see it stated that the contract for the erection of a large hotel at Franklin Grove was let a few days since by John Vawter, of Franklin, the owner of that beautiful piece of lake front.
The LaGrange Standard says: "The democracy of Clay was captured by the Lowry faction last Saturday. It was brought about by inducing the Ellison committeemen, A. H. Boggs, the regular committeeman, B. F. Zimmerman, to resign. Then David Norris, one of the most devoted of the Lowry wing, was chosen to fill the place."
"A Tin Soldier" comes to the Temple Theatre evening next, with no advance in prices. The beats of the play is satire, keen and telling, the force of its truths is as clothed in fun, fast and furious, so surrounded by good nature and so framed in bright music, that the whole makes one of the most enjoyable comedies of real life ever presented to the public. In wealth and variety of character study it exceeds any of Hoyt's plays.

To-morrow is Holy Saturday.

The local civil service examinations were concluded yesterday.

Mr. M. V. B. Spencer personally announces that he is a democratic candidate for congress.

Elizabeth Monroe saw Wm. Fitzgerald for $125 on a note. A. H. Bittiger is her counsel.

There was no police court this morning and the "Lillo" hasn't had a run for twenty-four hours.

Mr. Al. Field, the minstrel man, was in the city yesterday, en route to Peru to join the Wallace circus.

Professor Ungemach's choir will sing Webber's mass in "G" at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Easter Sunday.

Mr. Dennis O'Brien, the efficient street commissioner, is the papa of a handsome boy baby and is doing royal honors over the event.

The graduates of the Michigan University, at the suggestion of Mr. T. E. Ellison will give the college glee club a reception when they come here.

Henry Lehman, A. Dickson and W. J. Buckley, of Wichita, Kan., are in the city looking at the Jenney electric light with a view to introducing it at the thriving western city.

Mayor Muhler urges that the council pass a general natural gas ordinance and then invite companies to operate under its provisions. The chairman has been anxious for this sort of a thing.

The city of Fort Wayne this morning sued the Nickel Plate Railroad company to enjoin them from certain rights on Lafayette street. Colerick & Oppenheim and Randall & Vesey are attorneys for the city.

Preston Chapman, of Lafayette township, has cards out announcing his candidacy for sheriff on the democratic ticket. The other aspirants are Sheriff Viberg, Mr. Ed. Clausner and Mr. John J. Mungan. They are all strong men.

Dr. White Cloud will give no entertainment at the Princess Rink Monday evening, as a ball will be in progress that evening, and he has given up the rink for that purpose. He will resume his entertainments, however, Tuesday evening.

The pink tea and entertainment at the rooms of the railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. last night was a pronounced success. The building was well filled, the tea first class and the entertainment was a success financially. The ladies auxiliary may well feel elated over their achievements in the past. That of last evening showed there is no abatement of zeal on their part and that their hold on the community of which they are worthy has not lessened. The railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. may congratulate themselves upon having so efficient helpmate.

EX-SENATOR HARRISON.
He Makes a Crude Stamp Speech to a Very Fine Audience—The Tariff Avoided.

Ex-Senator Harrison addressed a magnificent audience of ladies and gentlemen at the Temple opera house last evening. There was a sprinkling of republican leaders on the stage, with Judge Chapin presiding. The first introduced the Huntington Glee club to lift the funeral dampness that lingered in the house. He then rose to introduce the speaker of the evening, but prefaced his remarks with a ludicrous statement that the Morton club was not a "silk stocking affair," but a meek and humble haven for republicans to dwell in if they had money and toes enough to shine in aristocratic society and approach the fatal board with the leaders.

The explanation was so refreshing that it thawed huge hunks of snow which Will Wilson and Cy Fike had collected to leave at the Morton club, while so honest shopman, who never even looked into the luxurious club tapestry chambers, pulled a cheery bell and rang it merrily.

The ex-senator then unbecomingly himself and gave his hearers a new photograph of his grievances. After thanking the Morton club, and advising his hearers to vote for the best man for township trustee (meaning Mr. Brackensridge) he thrust into Hoosier politics. The state institutions, the gerrymander, the tally sheet forgeries, the injustice to Colonel Robertson, and last, but not least, the defeat of himself for a return to the United States senate, by Mr. Turple, comprised the burden of his woeeful tale.

When Colonel Robertson's name was mentioned the audience cheered loudly and a voice from behind responded, "We will make him governor." Then there was renewed cheering for Colonel Robertson, but when it subsided Mr. Frank Alderman, who occupied a place in the box, yelled out, "He'll not be governor while Porter lives." When the audience recovered from this chill the senator proceeded. He could not bear the idea of Mr. Cleveland presiding over this nation when he did not receive a majority of the popular votes and made an evasive attack on the electoral college system of choosing a president.

The senator was not manly enough to tell his hearers that although Mr. Tilden received a vast majority of the popular votes and with them the electoral college, he was not permitted to take his seat through republican rascality. He did not say, like an honest man should, that as compared to this gigantic, unpardonable theft, all other tally sheet forgeries and election frauds pale into insignificance.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

A Budget of News Unearthed by a Hasty Trip Around the Depots and Manufactories.

The car famine is over.
Railroad travel is improving.
Interest still centers in the Burlington strike.

The Wabash shops are repairing several engines.
Supt. P. S. O'Rourke was at Kendallville yesterday.

This has been a holiday for a number of workmen.

Plymouth is still after the Jenney electric light works.

The section men are kept busy in repairing the railroad tracks.

J. S. Tyler, of the electric light works, is one of the deputy assessors.

To-morrow will be the last working day of the week and the month.

There are plenty of empty freight cars in the railroad yards at the present time.

The clerks of the railroad shops will soon be at work upon their monthly reports.

The new office rooms of the Besse foundry and machine works are now occupied.

There is a general belief among railroad men that the "Q" strike will soon come to an end.

The Hoosier manufacturing company is kept busy and has a full force of hands employed.

The moulding rooms of the Besse works are closed down to-day on account of Good Friday.

Robert McSmith, of Cleveland, traveling passenger agent of the C., B. & Q., was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Fainback, special passenger agent of the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City, was in the city yesterday.

A number of the machinists in the Besse works and the Pittsburg shops are off duty to-day keeping Good Friday.

Mr. John E. Ross, the ticket agent of the Pittsburg, has been entertaining a number of traveling passenger agents recently.

Martin Traverso, an apprentice machinist in the Pittsburg shops, is to be married soon to a young lady from the suburbs.

Frank P. Copper, of Tiffin, O., traveling passenger agent of the B. and O., was among the callers on Ticket Agent J. E. Ross yesterday.

The Pittsburg and Fort Wayne company is constructing a switch or side track from the main line to the Jenney electric light works on Broadway.

The carpenters of the Wabash shops are busy making repairs on a steam derrick, which is used by the company in building and repairing bridges.

There is an almost unanimous sentiment among the labor men in favor of leaving the work labor out of the name of the party which will be organized at the national convention in May.

Jap Edsell, an employe of the Anthony Wayne washing machine company, had three of his fingers so badly injured Wednesday in the machinery that amputation of them was made necessary.

Mr. O. Warner, the traveling passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, a road that is at present getting more free advertising than any other road in America, was in the city yesterday. He thinks the strike on the "Q" will not last forever.

Charles E. Taylor, with a number of other machinists in the Besse works, is observing Good Friday to-day. Charles can spend his day off very profitably, as he has a fine lot of poultry at home to which he can turn his attention. John T. Wiseman and Henry Zauner were also off duty to-day and they are no doubt admiring the superior qualities of Charles's blooded poultry.

Grand Master Workman Powderly says: "What combination of hungry men could fight a battle against a combination of dollars? When a workman comes to earn, his stomach feels it, and, unless charity is given, he starves. Education must be our motto; we must educate our members. Again, I say strikes do no good. Go to the coal fields in the Leigh regions, where they have been on a strike for five months, and what do you see there? Misery and suffering on every side."

ONE YEAR.
Frank Pickering Gets That Term in the Prison North.

Frank Pickering, the Nickel Plate brakemen, who snatched a $10 bill from the hands of Willie Brathwaite, son of Engineer Brathwaite, of the Nickel Plate road, some weeks ago, consented to come into court this morning and plead guilty.

Judge O'Rourke sentenced him to one year in the prison north, but before the words were pronounced Pickering said that whisky prompted him to the act and through its influence he went wrong.

The man has a young wife, who called on him each day at the jail and clung to him with all the devotion of a woman. She wept bitterly when sentence was passed on her erring husband this morning and won the pity of everyone.

"Neither rhyme nor reason can express how much I value a cure I've found for my weak ankle," she said. "What can it be?" "Fancy a woman never having heard of Salvation Oil at twenty-five cents a bottle."

Don't fail to attend the ball and entertainment to be given by the Fort Wayne Turnverein Easter Monday evening.

Do your trading early and help the grocer's clerks.

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

Notes of the Delays at the Important Gathering.

Interest in the North Indiana conference at Wabash increases daily.

The anniversary temperance sermon of Dr. A. B. Leonard, of Ohio, on Wednesday evening, attracted a very large audience to the church, every seat being occupied long before 7:30—the time fixed for the meeting. The tenor of his remarks were to the effect that prohibition would be accomplished only by prohibitory legislation.

There are a number of candidates for lay delegates to the national convention, of whom two are to be chosen. The following gentlemen are seeking election: Joseph S. Baker, Warsaw; Judge J. W. McBride, Waterloo; J. H. Berlek, LaGrange; J. W. Seaman, Kokomo; W. A. Thompson, Winchester; Dr. Overholzer, Logansport; Charles L. Henry, Anderson. These delegates have their railway fare and hotel bills paid in attending the general conference.

Rev. M. C. Cooper during the past year has been doing a grand work in Fort Wayne, having organized a new society on Walton Avenue, and built a splendid new church. The work was peculiarly arduous and difficult. After completing the church, he conducted a revival and obtained over one hundred accessions. He is one of the most enthusiastic and energetic young men in the conference.

There was pretty general talk upon the floor of the conference to-day about the availability of the Rev. A. E. Mahin for the office of presiding elder in the Fort Wayne district. There seemed to be a strong desire on the part of the ministers to recognize his fitness and qualifications for that position. Mr. Mahin is one of the very strongest men in the conference. As an orator he has few equals and would grace that high office with singular ability.

The following members of the committee on Sunday were reported: Fort Wayne, F. G. Browne, Goshen, A. J. Cawey, Kokomo, J. B. Tullinger; Muncie, J. W. Leavelle; Richmond, R. N. Barnes; Warsaw, W. S. Boston.

The bishop appears to have a horror of the word "assessments" in church nomenclature. Several ministers who made use of the term were mildly reproved therefor. Bishop Merrill insists upon employing the word "apportionment" instead.

None of the younger members of the conference use tobacco in any form, and the veterans are breaking off the habit as rapidly as they can.

The salaries of the bishops of the church are $3,000 per annum and traveling expenses.

Is Not
my time worth more than I can save by taking my package to some cheap Chinese laundry, and then have to go and get it again when finished? Yes, I will ask Troy laundry to send me postal order cards, so that I can send word to have their wagon call for it.

Mrs. Jane Agnew, mother of Mrs. Wm. Harrison, of this city, died at Pittsburg Wednesday, at the age of nearly eighty. Her remains passed through the city this morning on the way to Lawton, Mich., where they will be buried by the side of her husband.

Mr. Henry Agnew, who was formerly a merchant of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison accompanied the body from this place. Mrs. Agnew was the grandmother of Mrs. Byron Hattaway, Mrs. Samuel Foster and Mrs. Baylor, of this city.

The Weather.
WASHINGTON, March 30.—Indiana, Warner fair weather, except light rain or snow in northern Ohio.

Mr. W. W. Adams, of Kansas, wrote to Senator Ingalls sending him a copy of a St. Joseph paper containing a reference to Ingalls' Presidential aspirations, calling attention to the reference and asking him for an expression of his opinion. The following was received by Adams:

DEAR MR. ADAMS: The special referred to has been noted. I was very much impressed by the low prices for hosiery that prevailed in St. Joseph, as indicated by an advertisement. Thirty-four cents a pair for extra-long ladies' black ingrain brilliant lace hose is certainly very cheap. There is no occasion for the women of Missouri to go barefooted when they can buy stockings at three times yours truly.

Every workman interested in having less working hours should do his trading at the grocery before 7:30 p. m. and thereby endorse the clerk. 25-26

The Detroit Philharmonic club, who won unreserved praise at their concert in Fort Wayne in April of 1887 will interpret the program of the sixth subscription concert entertainment on Wednesday evening, April 4th, at the Temple. Madame Bertha Yankel, a soprano of great force and fire, has consented to contribute the vocal numbers of the evening. Suffice it to say of this concert that it will in every respect carry out the design of the subscription course, viz: to provide thoroughly artistic entertainments at modern prices. 25-26

Remember the Fort Wayne Turnverein will give a grand entertainment and ball Easter Monday evening at their hall. 25-26
